

MISSIONARY

Mark and Florina – Church Planting in Southern Romania

Here are some short extracts about us and our ministry here .

Romania’s Mother’s Day was last Sunday

With people from Church, we made over 300 flowers ready for Mother’s Day. We gave them out on the street & in shops. The women were pleasantly surprised and very happy to receive them. Only one person turned me down when she heard we were Baptists.....

Otherwise it was a nice experience to see many women smiling & receiving the flower with joy. On the leaf it said: “The beauty of a women is her kindness.” Proverbs19:22

The word of God & our prayers have reached at least 300 homes and hearts.

Please pray the Lord will use this little gift to touch hearts & raise an interest to know God.

Write the word on your heart

One Sunday recently our family went to visit the church in Maldaieni and be part of the Morning service. This church is led by a local believer and his family. There are about 16 people in the church, and they are passionate for the Lord.

Our visit was not only encouraging for them, but for us as well. Hearing the 6 children of the family who serve in this village reciting whole chapters memorized from the Scripture, it was so encouraging, but we also realised that we too must be memorizing God's word more for ourselves.

Going to Maldaieni again

We are so happy that the Lord blessed us with a beautiful sunny day one Saturday when we had planned to go out on the streets in Maldaieni to take the Good News to people and pray for them. There were 28 of us. Romanians, Americans young and middle aged.

We made 4 groups and went all over the village of Maldaieni. We met many people willing to talk, listen and ask questions. We met people who were crying & in need of a kind word & a warm hug. We met others who made doughnuts specially for us as they were so happy to meet us and hear the good news. We met others who said they would like to know more about Jesus. Pray for us as we'll keep in touch with those that showed more interest.

Do pray for Mark : he’s being treated for a bad infection in 2 teeth causing him great pain.

We are so grateful to our friends at Upney Church for increasing our support. It means a lot to us. Thank you all very much. Every blessing, Mark and Florina.

Arrived safely! Phil and Carolyn thank God and us for our prayers for journeying mercies this week. No problems. Liquorice survived the flight well.

Praise God for all His the strength and enabling over the past very hectic weeks. They're tired. Just want to sleep, relax, eat and go to the park walking the dog! Keep them in your prayers as they adjust to life in the U.K & know His future plans.

Praise the LORD!
